

HOW TO USE THIS RESOURCE

These are some resources to get your North American Beaver unit started. You can learn more about the unit at Presentation: At the beginning of your unit, go over the first pages of the presentation with your class. Share the presentation with your students, so they can review the slides and watch the videos during independent work time.

Passage: This passage focuses on beaver adaptations. Have your students highlight all of the adaptations they find in the passage and create a poster as a class. You can find more passages on beavers to highlight other topics.

Sentence Pages: Choose one of the sentence activities as an exit ticket for your beaver lesson.

Notes Page: Have students take notes as they read passages and/or watch videos. You can have them use the notes page to do a longer writing assignment.
